† Heart to Heart Chat – 10.2.2022

My dear friends,

There had been so many great saints that the history of the Catholic Church had registered. One of them is Teresa of Avila. She experienced levitation during her prayer. "Her levitation incidents seem to have occurred spontaneously during states of spiritual rapture. During the incidents she would feel intimidated and have a sense of humility as she perceived the experience God sent. Often Teresa would be in a state of trance while levitating. In some cases, the nuns would try to keep her on the ground but would fail." This was part of her mystical experience. Is mystical experience a prerogative of a few?

I have experienced with a retreat preacher who cried profusely every time he celebrated mass. When I asked him about that experience, he explained to me that he was so profoundly touched by the deepest love of God touching him intimately through the Real Presence of Christ. Mysticism is certainly not the privilege of a few saints. It is a spiritual experience open and available to us all. Mysticism is not a paranormal experience or what we experience in an altered state of consciousness. It is to come in touch with our true self with searing clarity. Usually our consciousnesses are blocked by ego, wounds of the past, social pressure, false fear and so many other things. So many things we experience in life do not allow us to be in touch with our true consciousness. When we really experience that connectedness with our true self that becomes a mystical experience. As Ruth Burrows defines it, "is being touched by God in a way that is beyond words, imagination and feeling. God, as we know, is Oneness, Truth, Goodness and Beauty. So, any time we are genuinely touched by oneness, truth, goodness or beauty, without anything distorting that, we are having a mystical experience." In which case, what kinds of things might induce mystical experiences in our lives? The answer is: anything that takes us beyond our ego, our wounds, the social pressures within which we breathe, anything that helps us to put us in touch with our real person and that helps us to become a better person. It could be such as what my retreat preacher experience during mass, when you experience deep sense of forgiveness, when we are deeply moved by an act of kindness and love or to experience the deep suffering of a friend. In all such experiences, and through many other experiences too, we are deeply touched by God and that offers us a great clarity to face our true self, the real who we are. Such a deep spiritual experience sets us toward a new level of spiritual growth. Rekindle in us a desire to pray well. Help us to seek deeper and better relationship with the Lord. Let us keep our hearts open to such mystical experiences in our spiritual life that we can experience God more personally.

Your brother in Christ,
Fr. Xavier Ilango

"For God did not give us a spirit of cowardice but rather of power and love and self-control." 2 Timothy 1:7

Many of us compartmentalize our Faith, we bring it out only when we attend Mass or when we attend a parish event. Being a good steward requires discipline and striving to put God first in everything - all the time. The next time you are at a neighborhood party or at work or out shopping, would your words and actions signal to others that you are a good and faithful servant of our Lord?

Fellowship after Mass

There will be coffee and a light lunch served the 2nd and 4th Sundays of the month starting this September. The pastoral council members will be serving the two Sundays in September. You are being asked to volunteer the other months, to bring the food items (muffins, rolls, breads, or other items of your choice) and serve on a Sunday that would work for you. There is a sign-up sheet on the cart in the entrance. You can serve as an individual family or get together with a couple of other families. We are looking forward to fellowship once again, but it will take all of us working together to make this happen.

Diocesan Annual Appeal

SS. Peter and Paul has a DAA goal of $13,669. Forty-one donors have offered $10,645 leaving a DAA deficit of $3,024. We are at 77.88% of our parish goal. If you are able, please contribute to the 2022 DAA by going to www.crookston.org/DAA or dropping a check for the DAA in the parish offertory basket. We will make sure your gift gets to the Diocese of Crookston Pastoral Center. As of 9/16/2022, 97.5% of the Annual goal of $910,000 has been met. Overall, we are $22,675 under goal with the DAA year ending on December 31, 2022. Thank you to all the faithful who have made early gifts to the DAA!
